

Good Friday (Psalm 30)
for the faithful of St Vincent's de Paul, Bramhall

Response (cantor)

Fa - ther, in - to your hands I comm - end my spi - rit.

Response (all + choir)

Fa - ther, in - to your hands I comm - end my spi - rit.

Verses (cantor + optional drone)

1. In you, O Lord, I take refuge. Let me never be put 2. In the face of 3. Those who see me 4. But as for me, I 5. Let your face shine on	to shame. all my foes in the street trust in you, Lord, your servant.	In your justice set me free. I am a re - proach, run far away from me. I say: 'You are my God.' Save me in your love.
--	--	--

Into your hands I commend an object of scorn to I am like a dead man, forgotten in My life is in your hands, deliv - Be strong, let your heart	my spirit. my neighbours men's hearts, er me take courage,	It is you who will redeem me, Lord. and of fear to my friends. like a thing thrown a - way. from the hands of those who hate me. all who hope in the Lord.
---	---	---